MEMORIES

Memories hurt and bring joy.

Some remind you of lost love,

Some are smiles and laughter--

Some are thoughts and questions.

Each memory an experience

All your own,

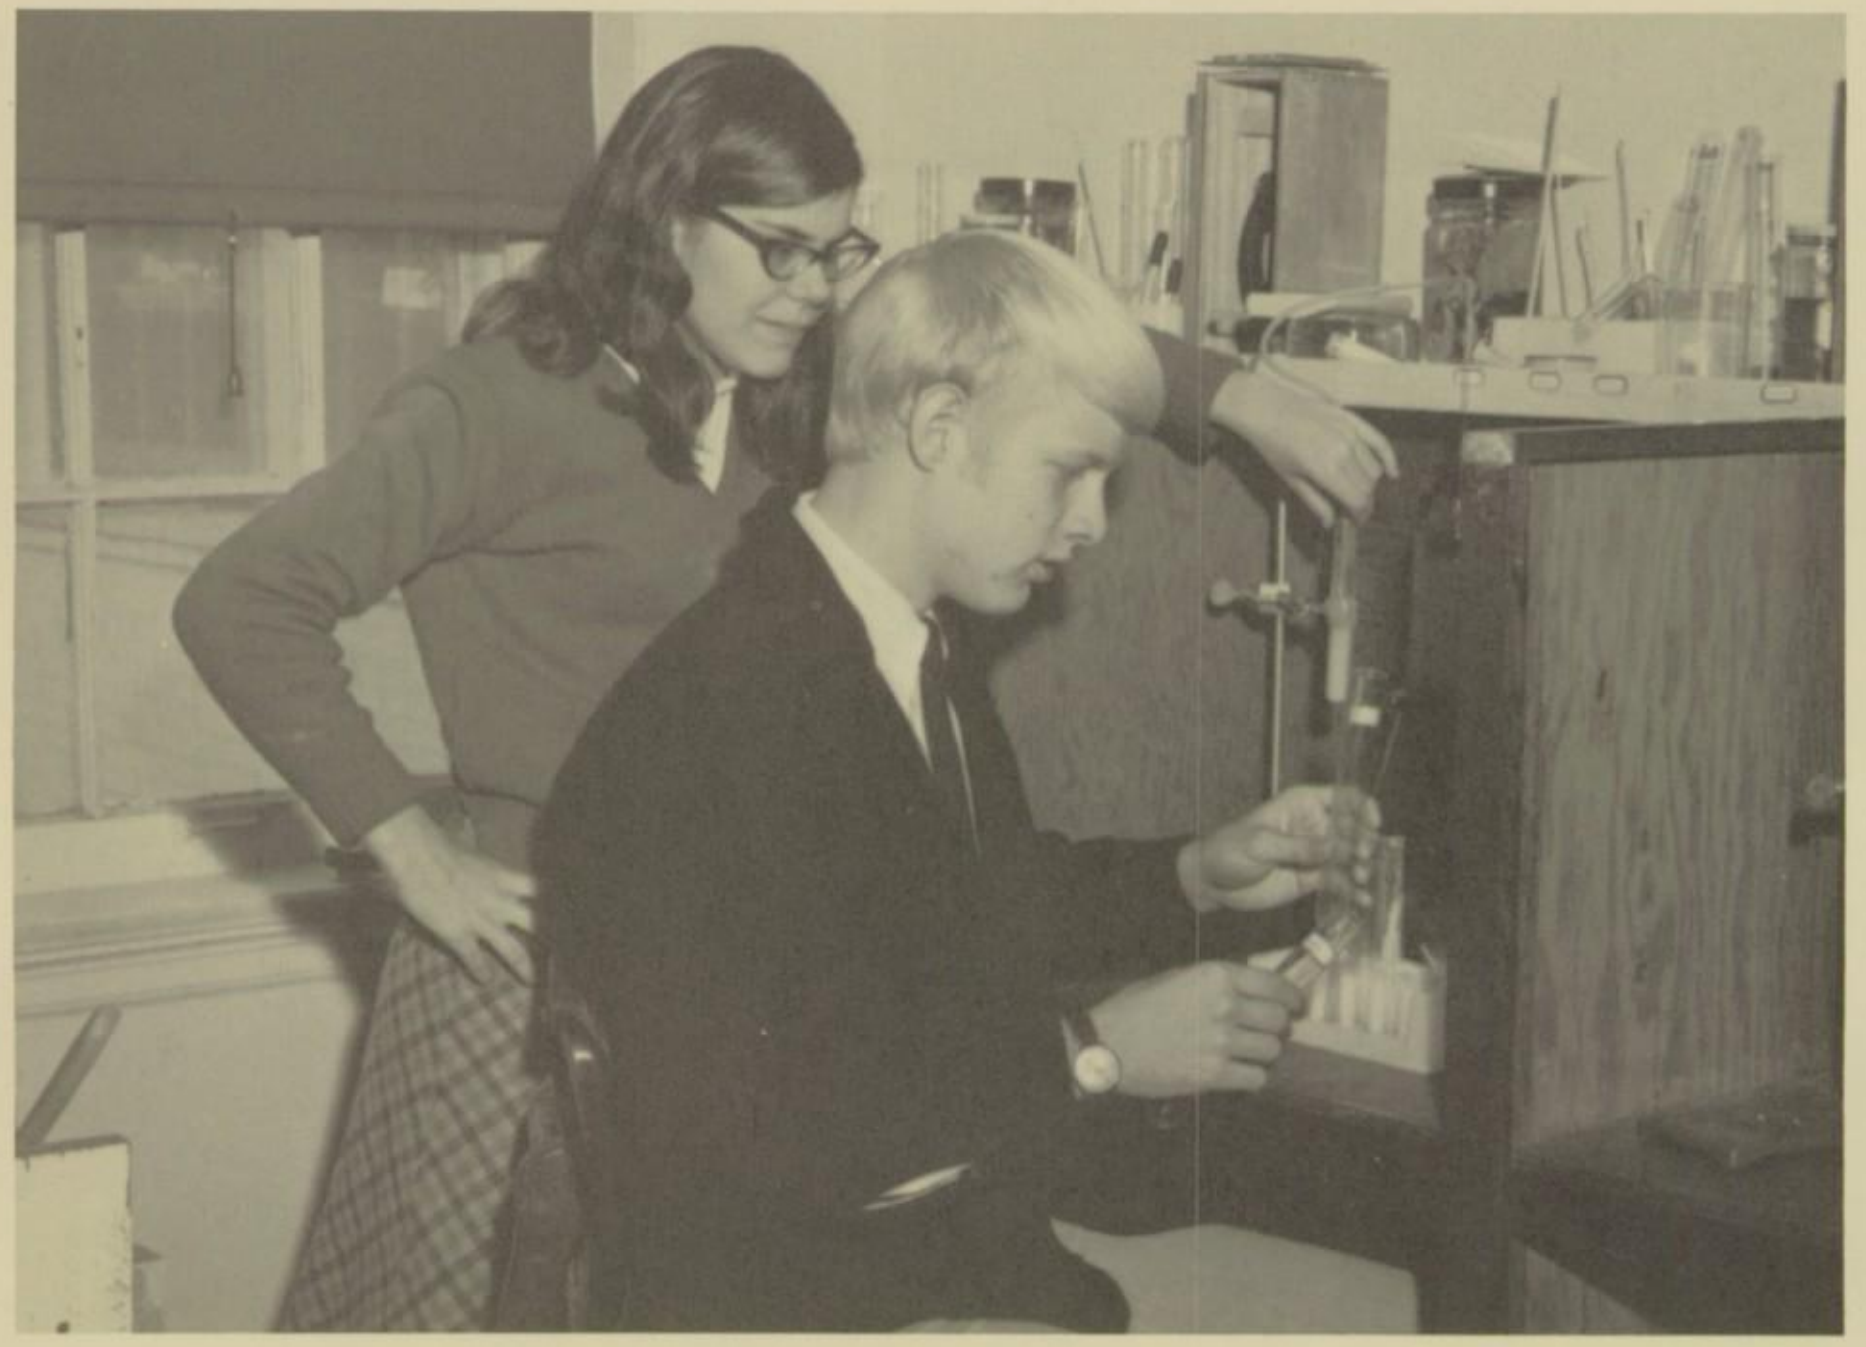
Never forgotten--

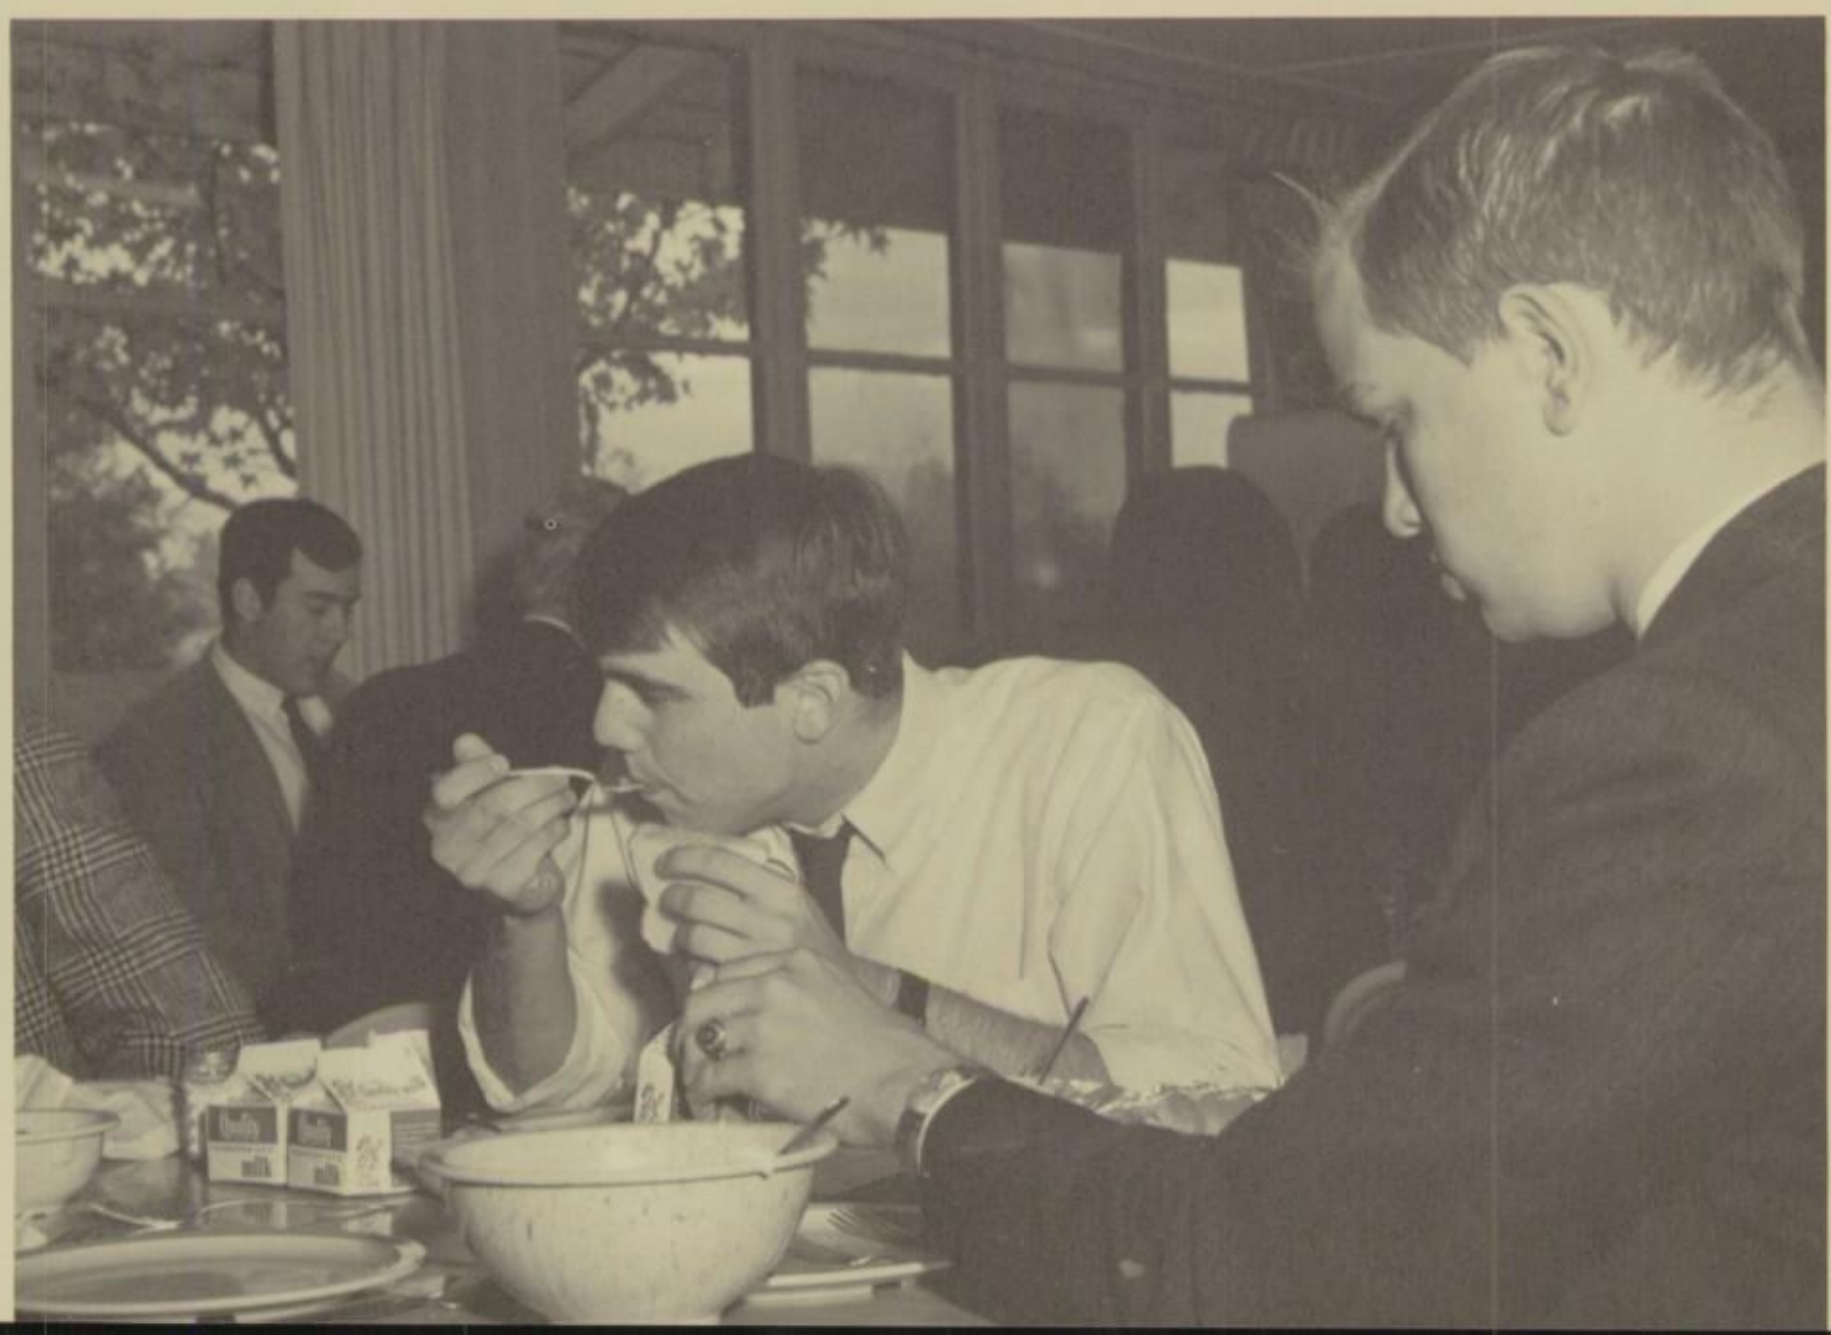
Something that dies with you.

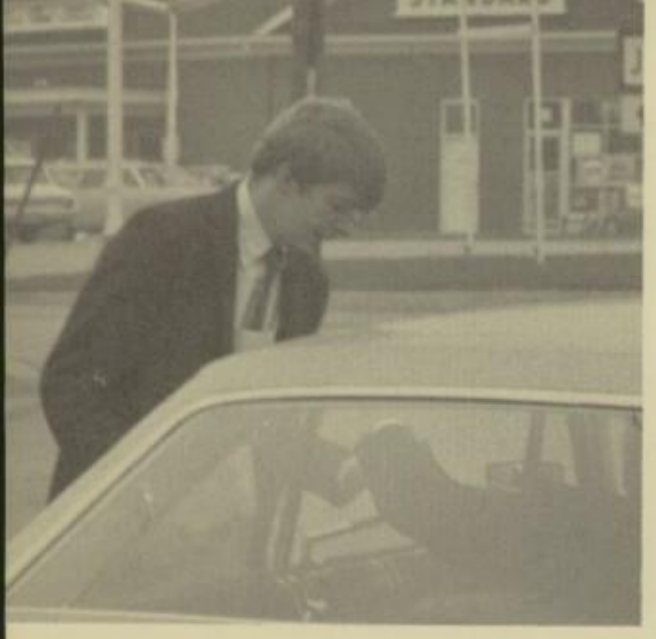
The Sylvan Staff hopes this book is a record of life.

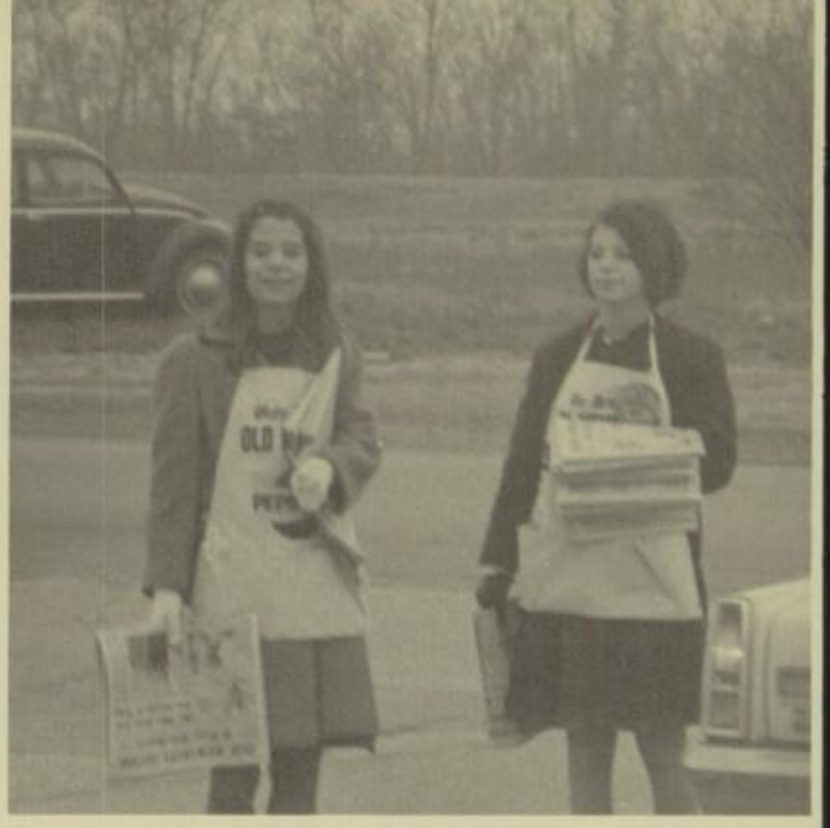
There are obviously two educations. One should teach us how to make a living. The other should teach us how to live.

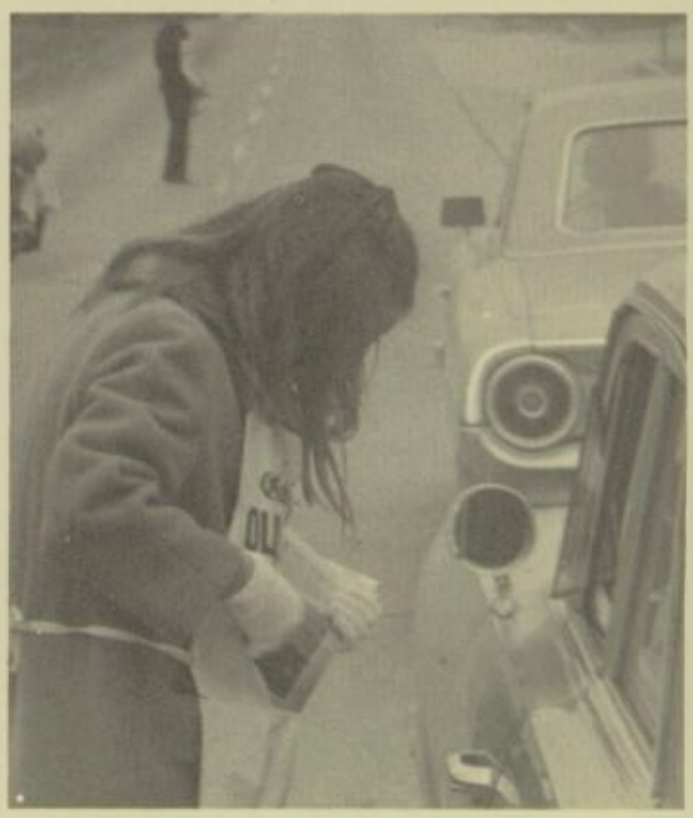
--James Truslow Adams





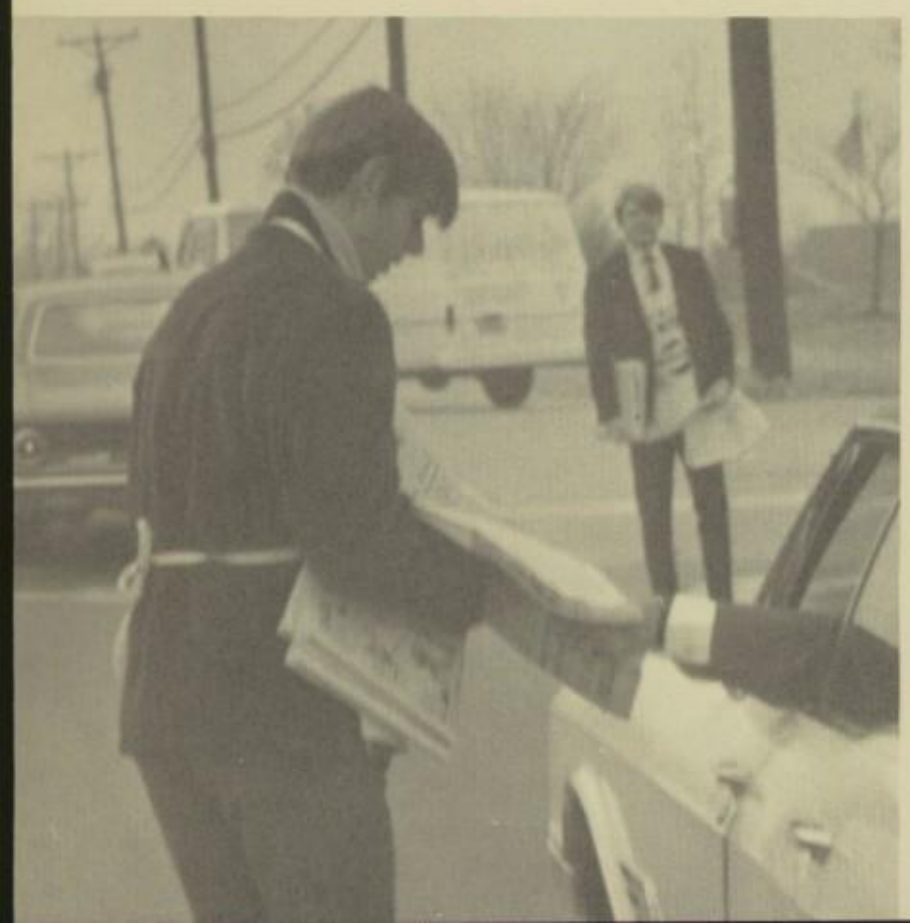


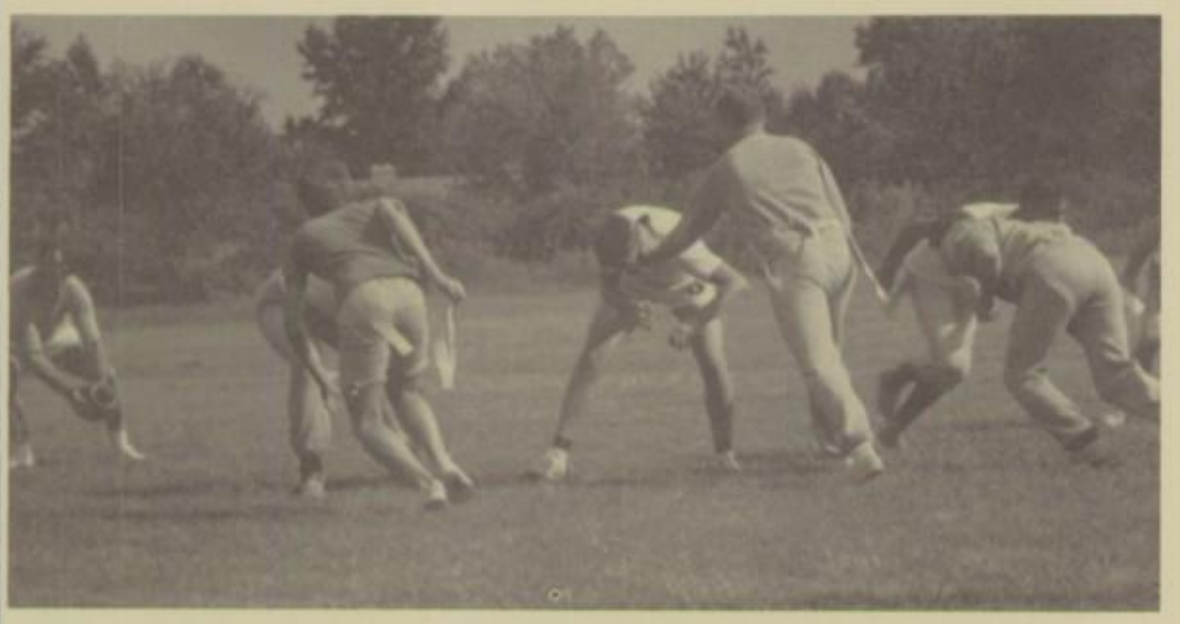




It is from hard years that we learn the lessons of life.

--Penny Drake

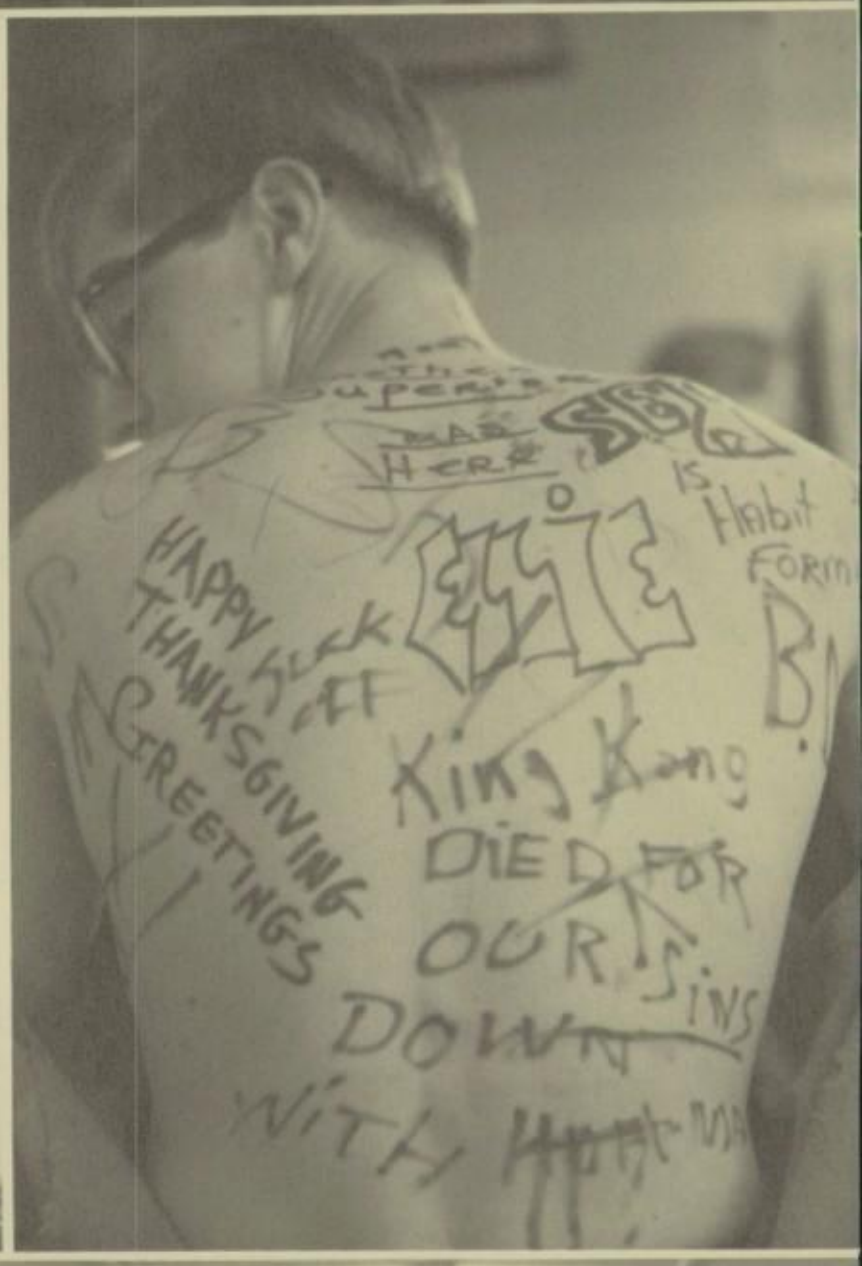


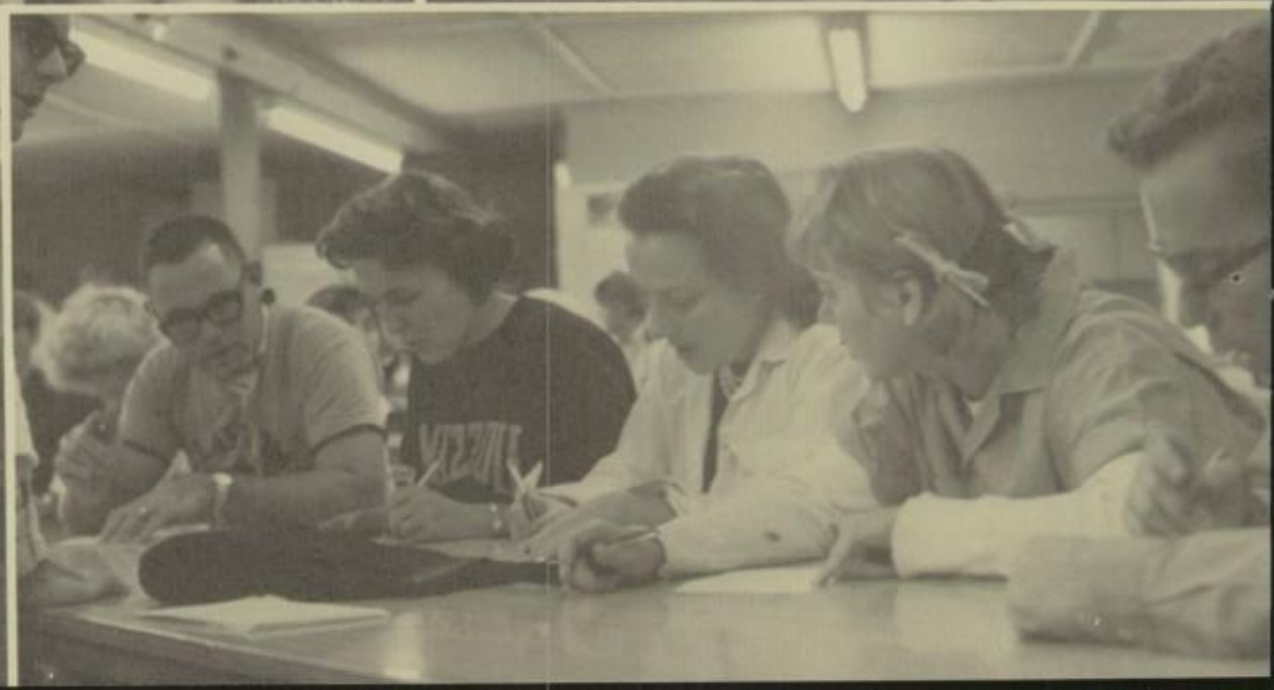


Opportunities grow stale unless promptly seized and used!!!
--Jogn Wanamaker

It is in sharing that happiness lies, even when it is the sharing of adversity and grief.

--Franklin P. Jones





There's nothing as gentle
as strength.

DEDICATION

MRS. HELEN SWANEY

Fourteen years ago a lady of many talents came to Sherwood Day School.

Her official title is Assistant in Administration, Elementary Grades; but she is known to everyone at Sherwood as a kind, soft-spoken woman of infinite patience. She has that rare ability of imparting her knowledge, quite painlessly, to her young students.

This lady has earned the respect of both the parents and the faculty, but more important she has earned the respect and affection of the Sherwood students.

We of the Yearbook Staff are pleased and proud to dedicate the nineteen hundred sixty eight Sylvan to Mrs. Helen Swaney.

The only failure which lacks dignity is the failure to try.

Conversation enriches the understanding, but solitude is the school of genius.

HEADMASTER

Sherwood Day School's Board of Directors, its student body, its expert teaching staff, and its active and enthusiastic parent organizations continue to combine their talents and zeal to keep strong the school's reputation as a sound college-preparatory institution. Recognition by greater St. Louis of Sherwood's service to the community has grown steadily year by year. Rising enrollment and the increase in number of applicants gives added proof of interest in and acceptance of Sherwood's educational stature, --its "concept for today's world."

To you, the graduating class, I express my appreciation for the elements of leadership you have provided. To each of you, my cordial best wishes.

JOHN LINNELL HOFFMANN

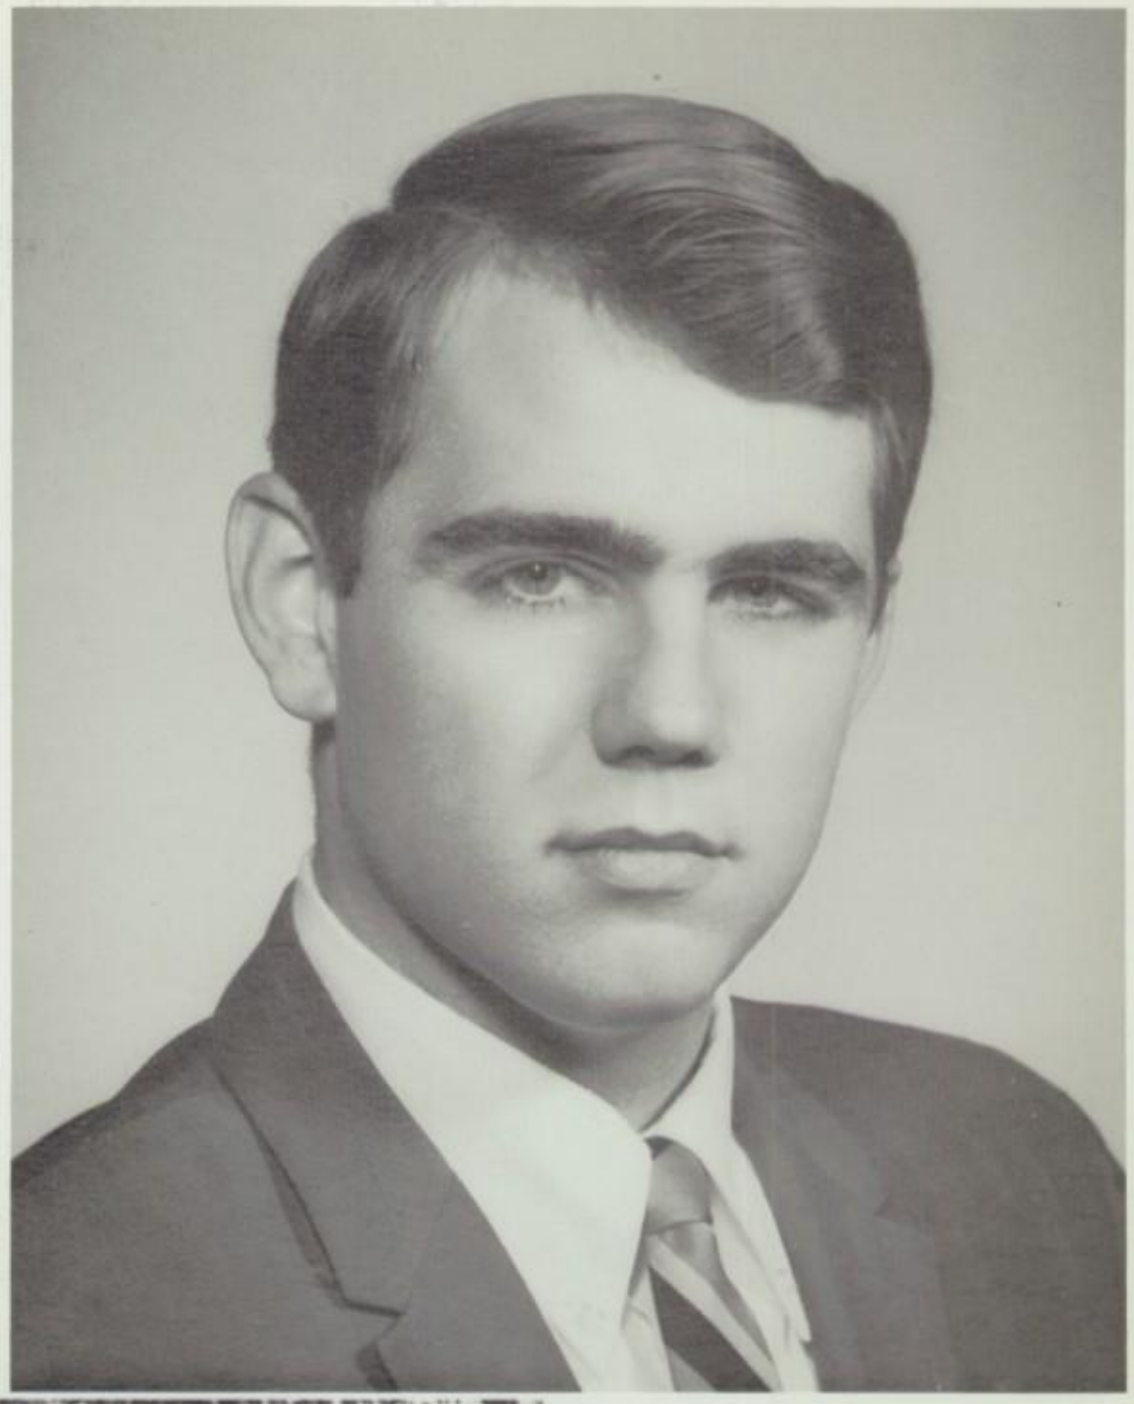
It's hard to beat a man who feels he has a just cause.

--Alen H. Newcomb

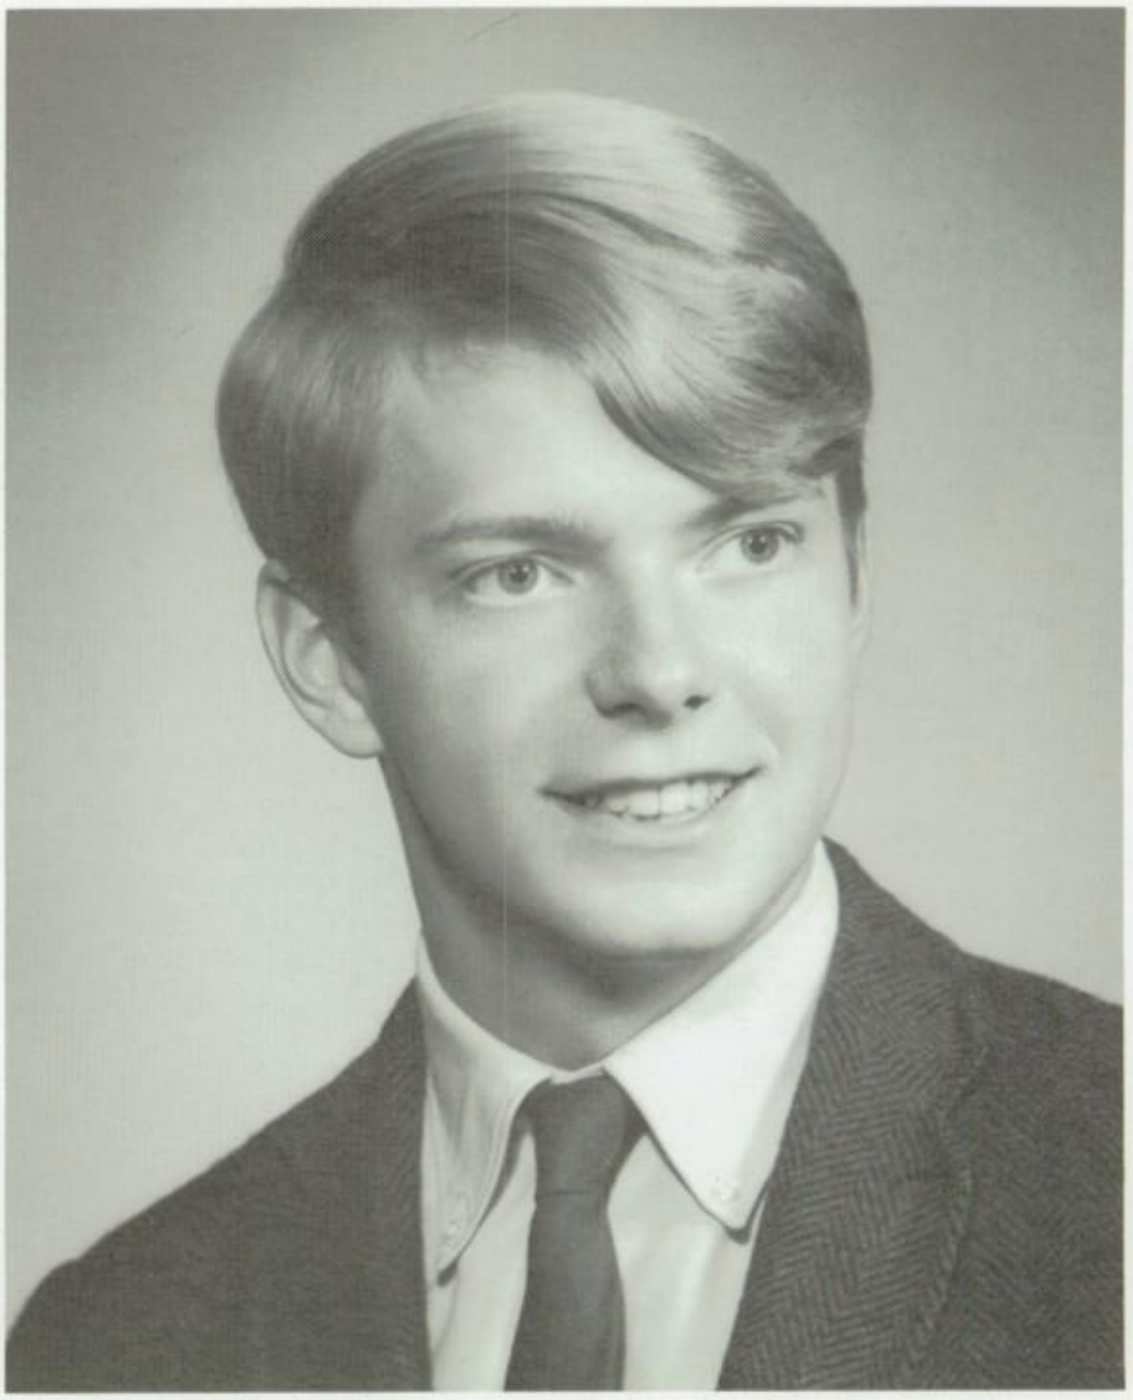
John has proven himself to be a determined worker, and is able to apply himself to any situation. His overwhelming friendliness toward his fellow students is well known throughout the school.

KENNETH STEPHEN MASTIN

It is good to be part of life.
Just as a sundial counts only
the sunny hours, so does life
know only that it is living.
--H. G. Wells



Ken has and uses his ability to express himself well. He is studious, and a determined worker. He has leadership ability, as displayed throughout the years in his literary contributions to the school.



ROBERT EDWARD OBERLIN, JR.

No life is so hard that you can't make it easier by the way you take it.

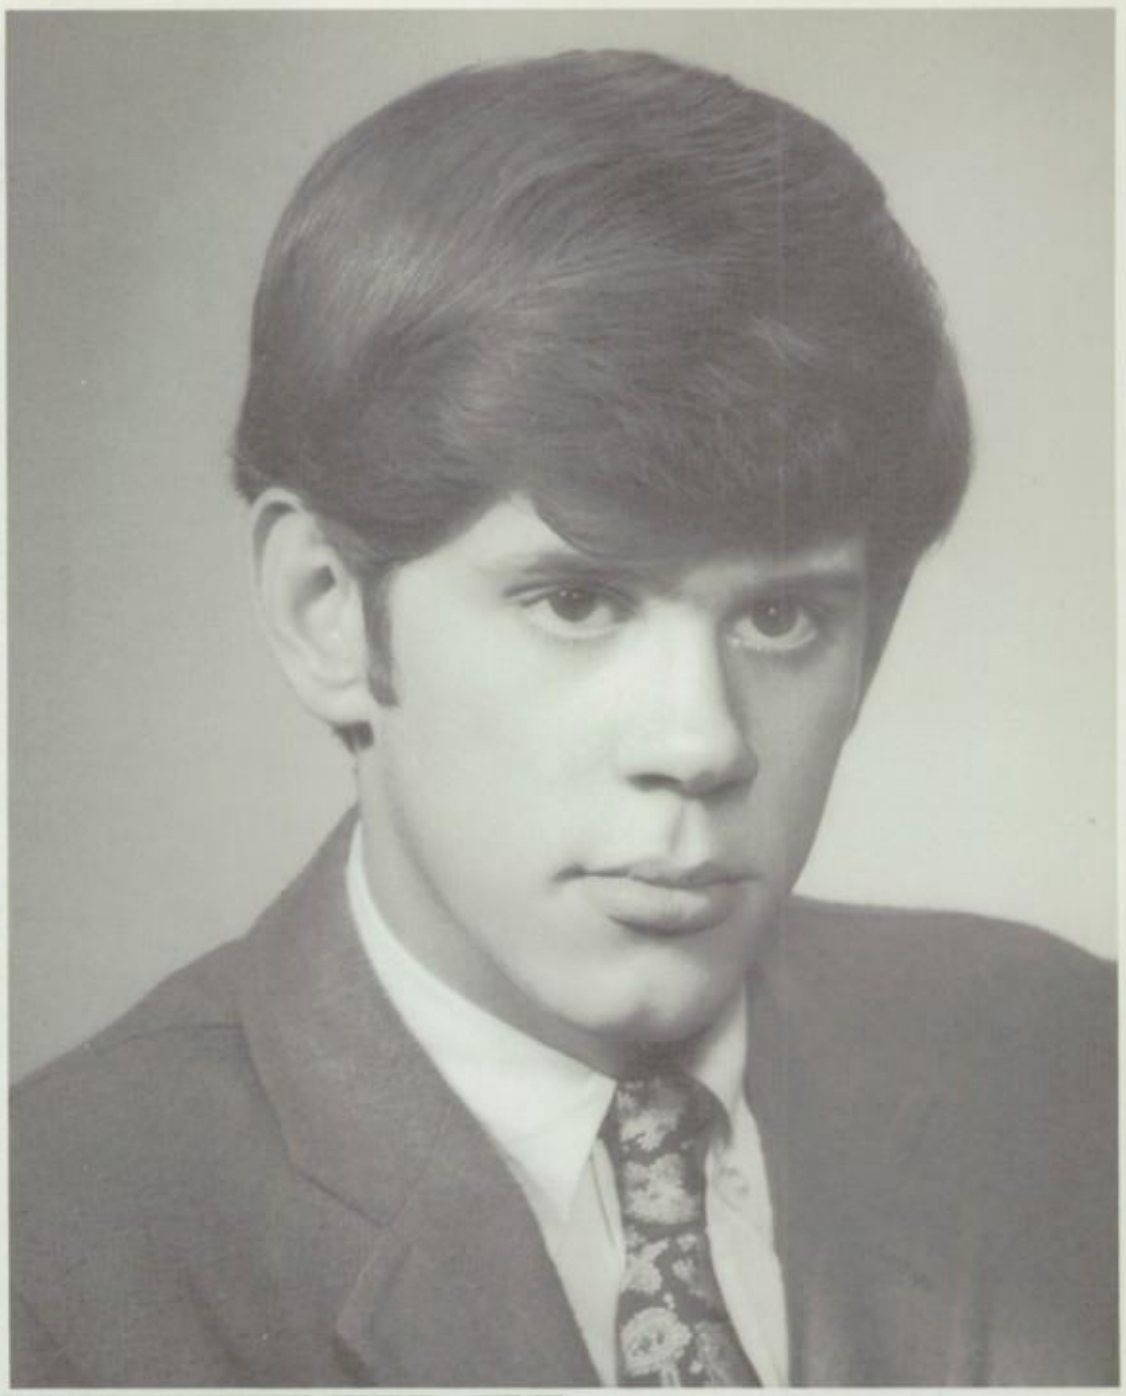
--Ellen Glasgow

Ed could most accurately be called "the life of the party." He expresses his intelligence not only in class, but in his quick-witted humor. Ed has the ability to see good in everything and everybody.

DIEDRICH FRIEDRICH
RIXMANN

A monument in marble will be yours if you spend your life building rather than chiseling.

--Printing Impressions

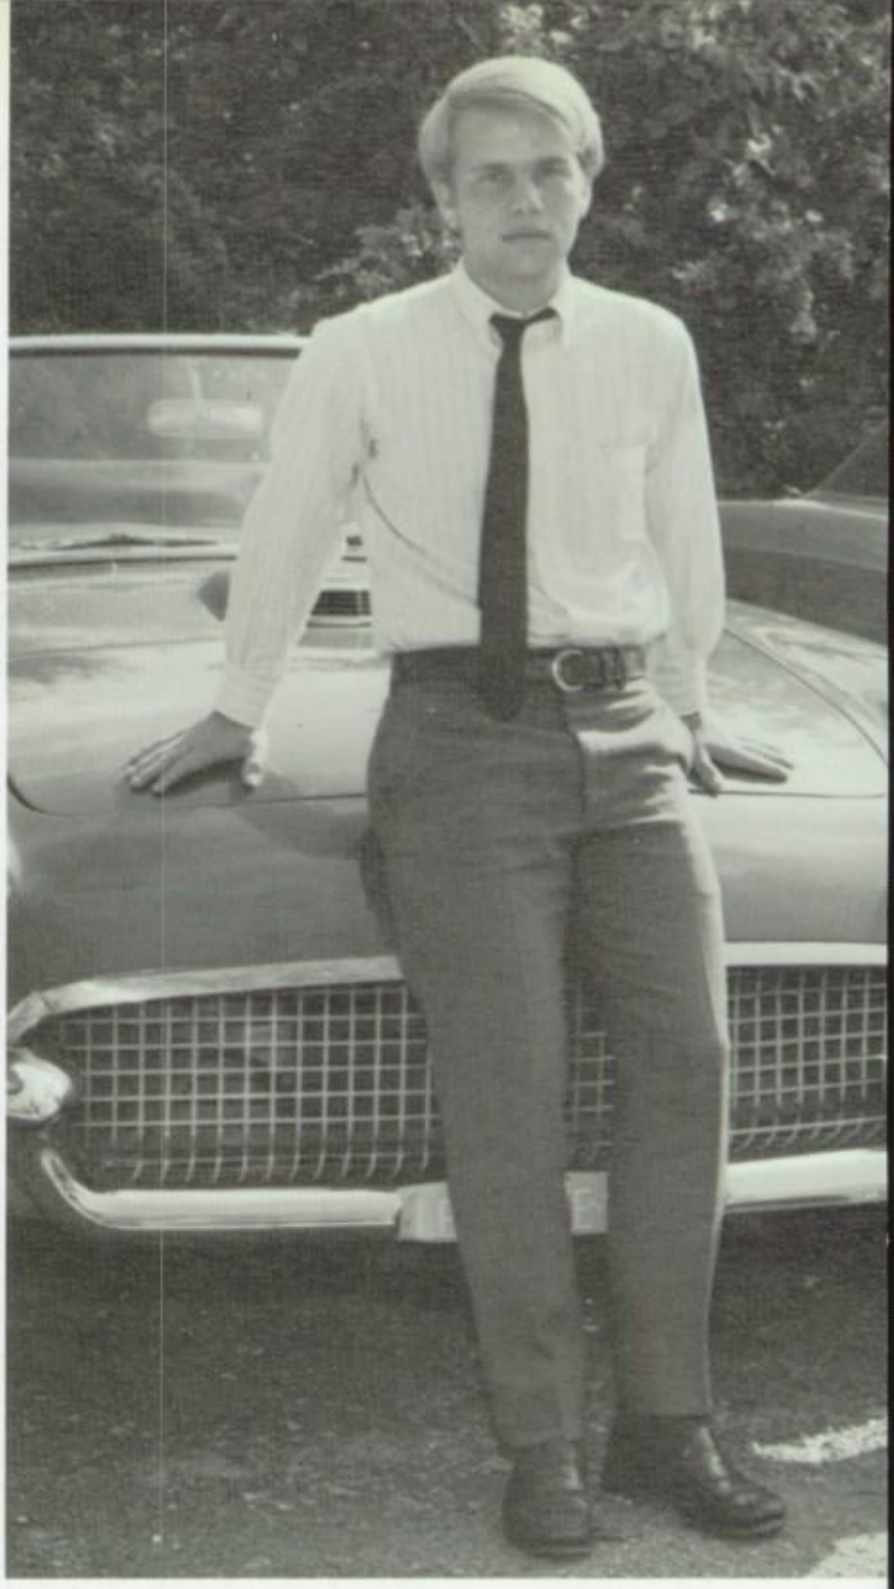


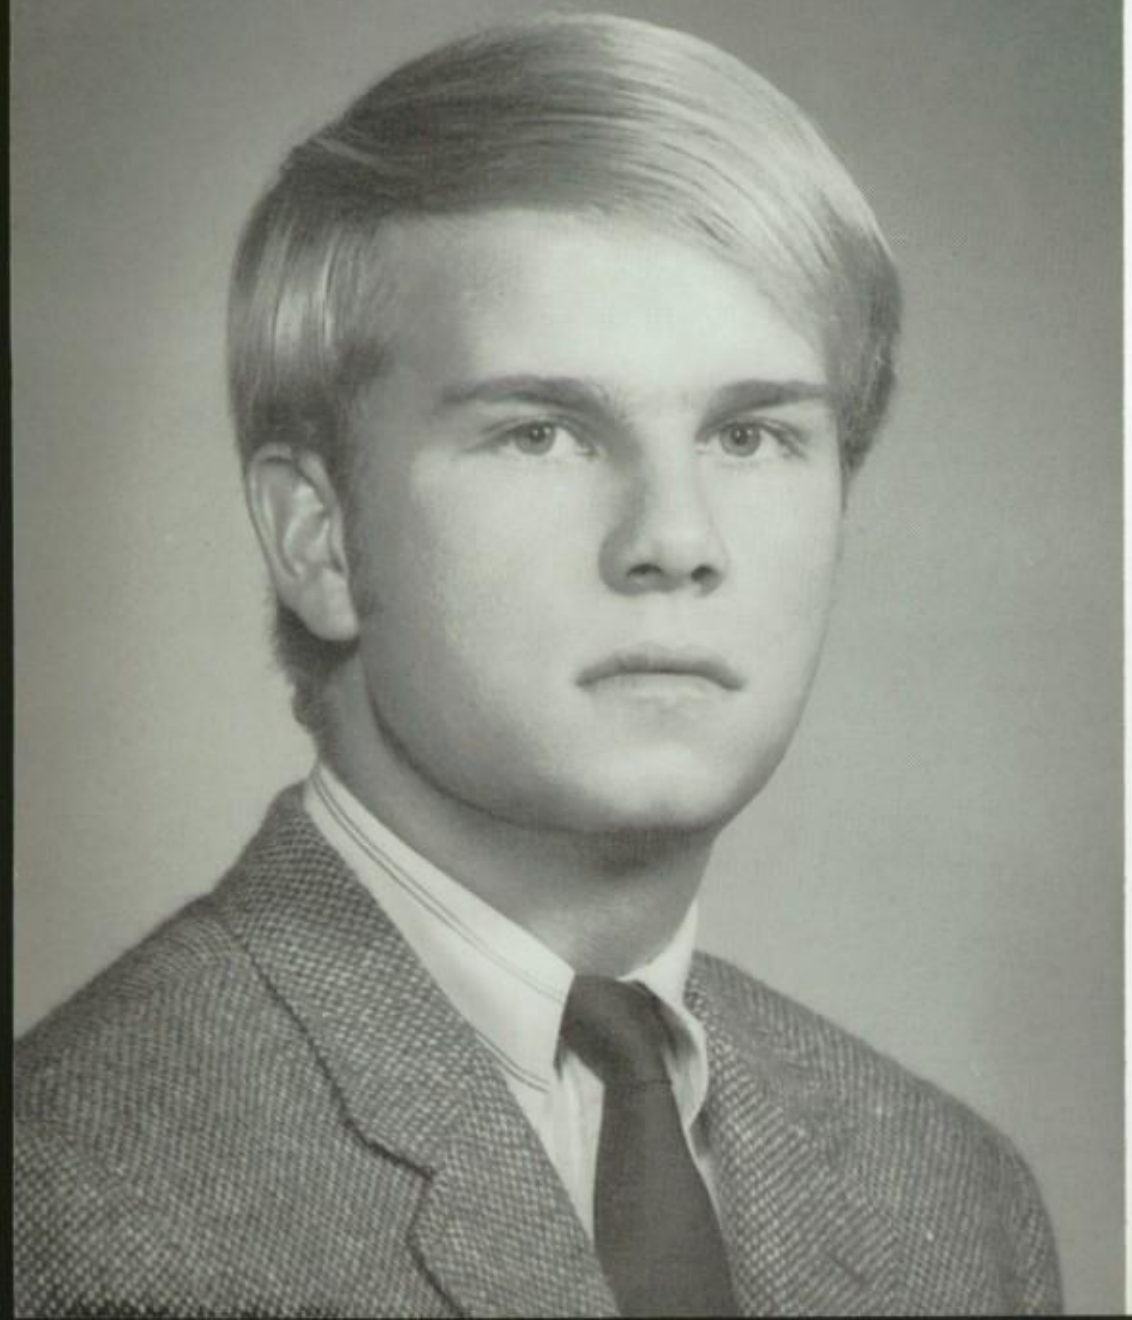
Drix has an insatiable curiosity, that can only be quelled by the arrival at the final answer. He is well liked by all the students, and has gained the reputation of having a sharp personality and an enjoyable, easy-going manner.

KIM LLOYD ROBERTS

Tomorrow never comes except in terms of what we do today.

--William M. Allen





Kim didn't waste time in making friends in this, his first year at Sherwood. He has a winning smile, a likeable personality, and excels in athletics, not only on the field, but in his good attitude toward the game.

SHERYL KATHRYN ROBINSON

Always, in all ways, look for tomorrow to be another wonderful adventure in living by seeing the good in all things today.

--C. B. Buchanan

Sheryl could most simply be described as the perfect lady. She is a persistent worker, and a genteel, yet effective leader. Her cheerful and polite manner wins her friends easily.

ELINOR ANN SALE

A really good idea is seldom captured except when chased by the brain at an exhausting pace, usually for a considerable time.

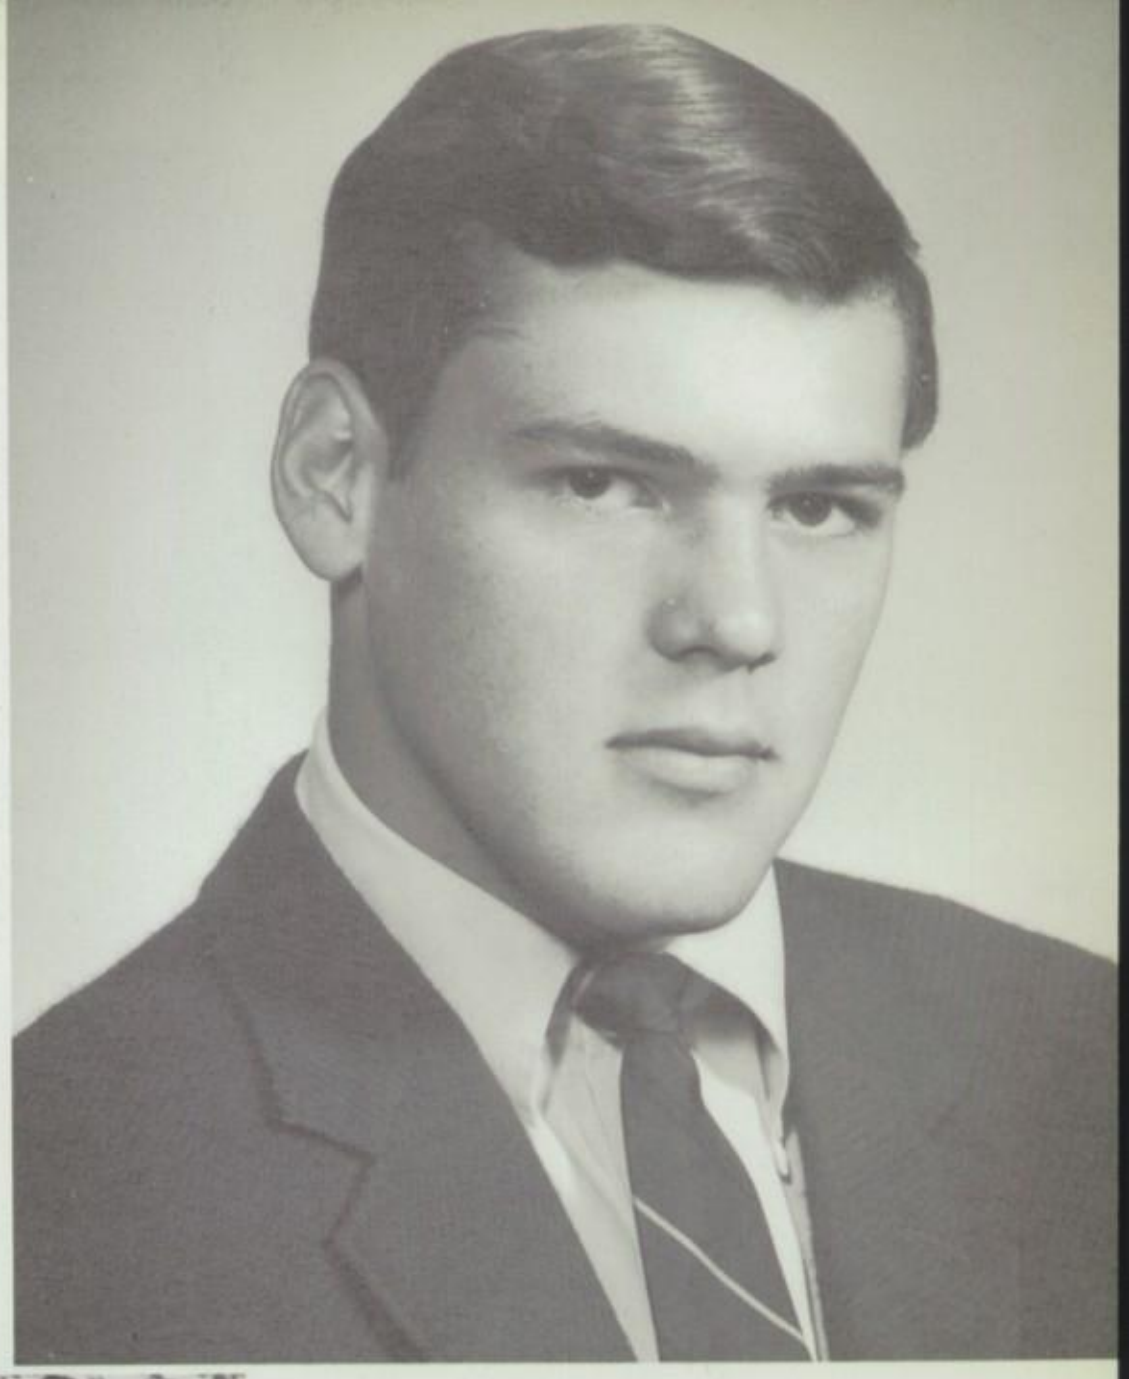
--Printers' Ink

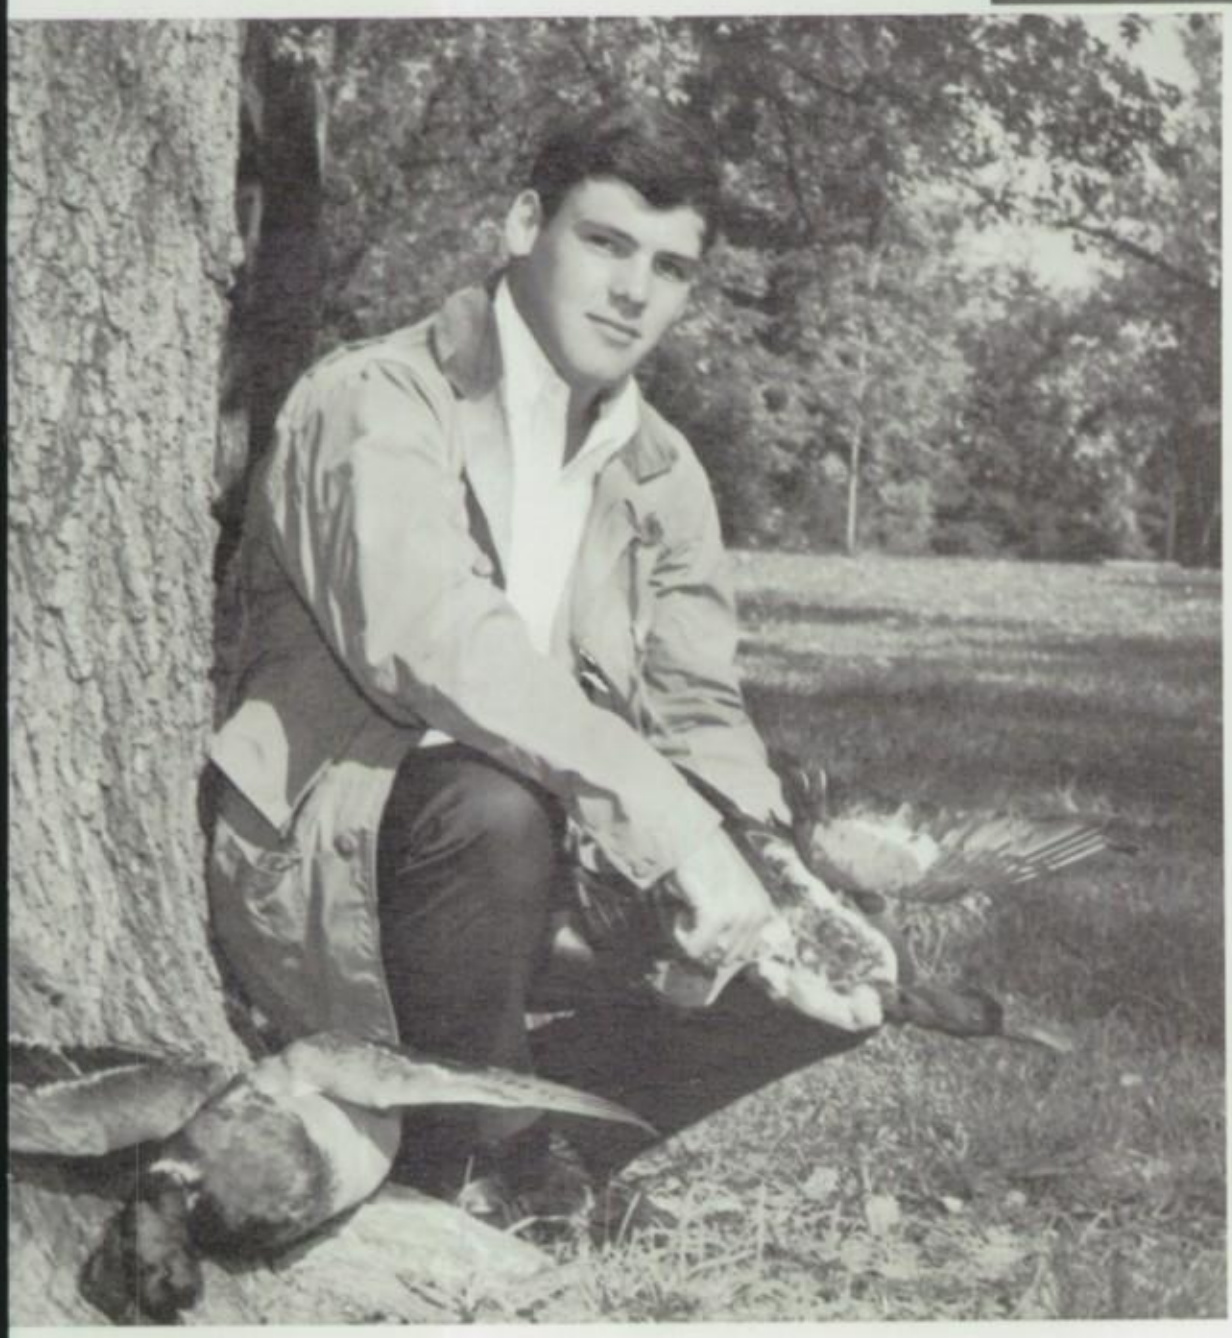
Vivacious and expressive are the words which best express Ellie. She is energetic and active in school activities. When Ellie makes up her mind to see a project through, one can be sure it will be a success.

BRIAN JOHNSON SHINKLE

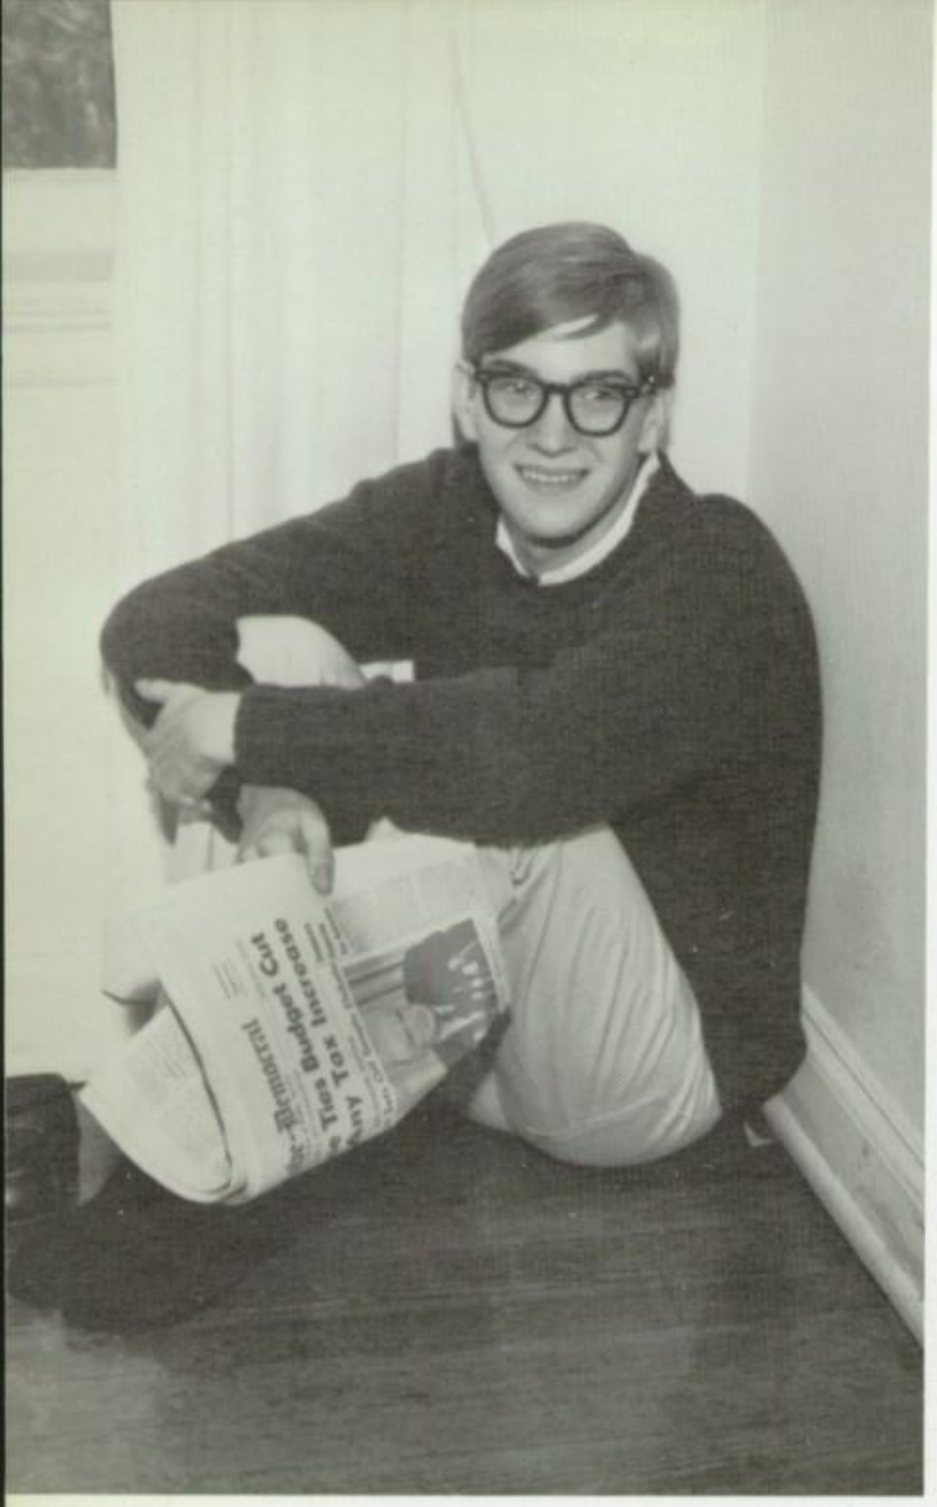
Real wisdom is the basis of a successful journey along the way of human life.

--Alice Joseph Morre





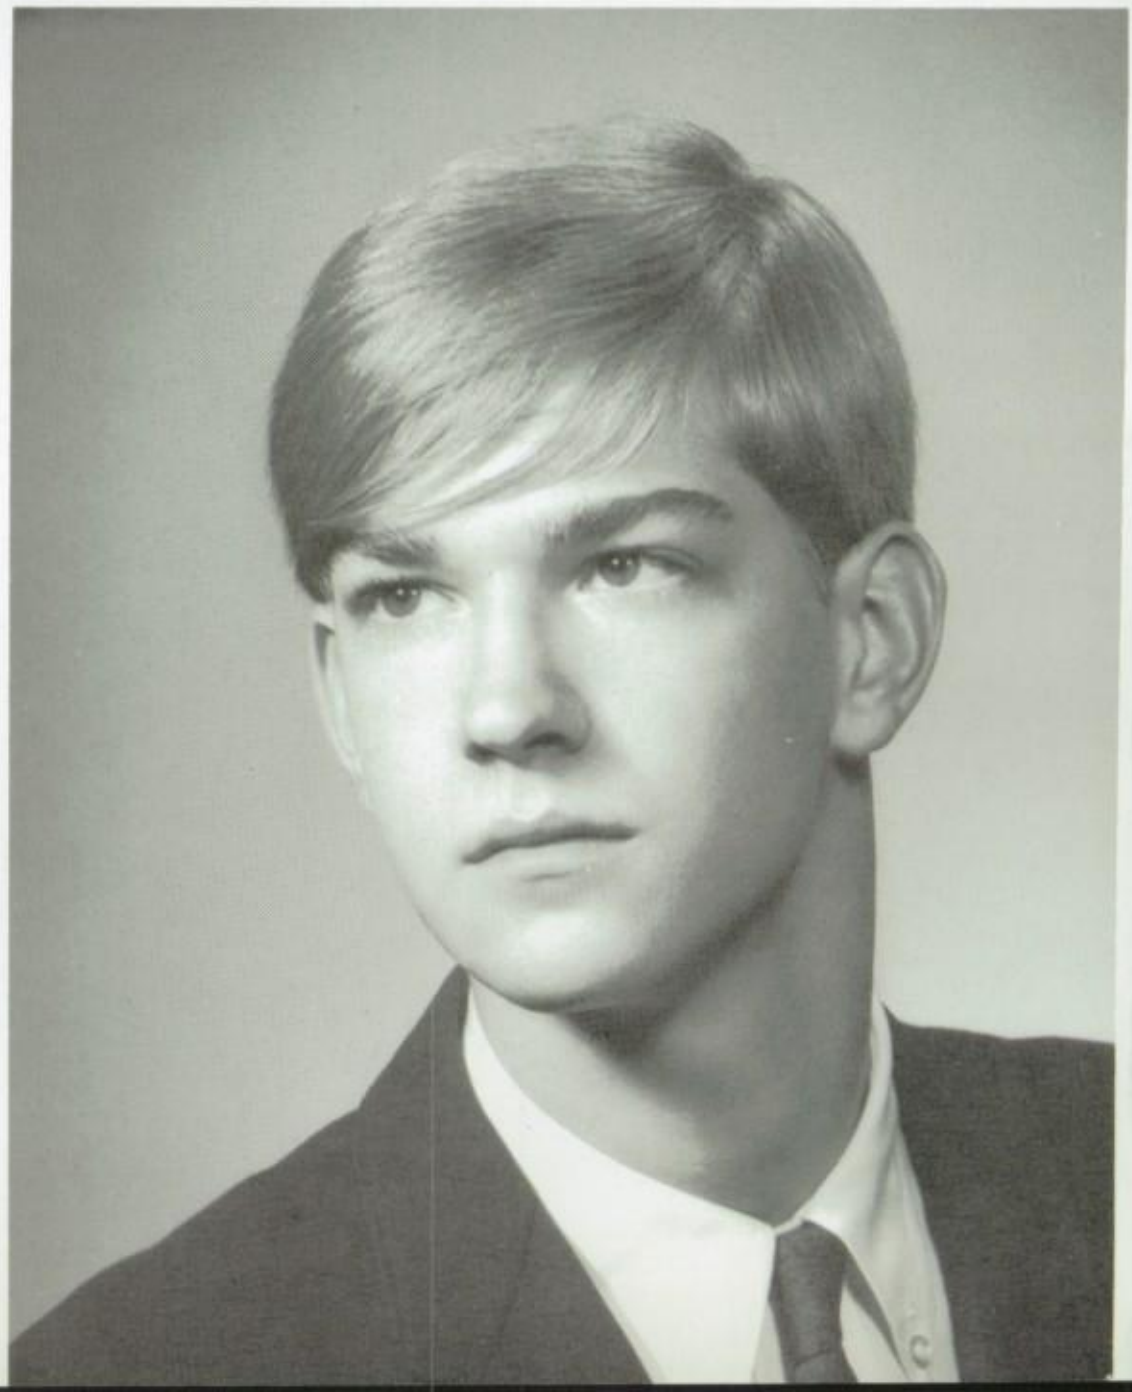
Brian is soft of speech, but a leader of men. He is mature beyond his years in many ways, and is an ardent lover of the outdoors. These qualities make him the respected person that he is.

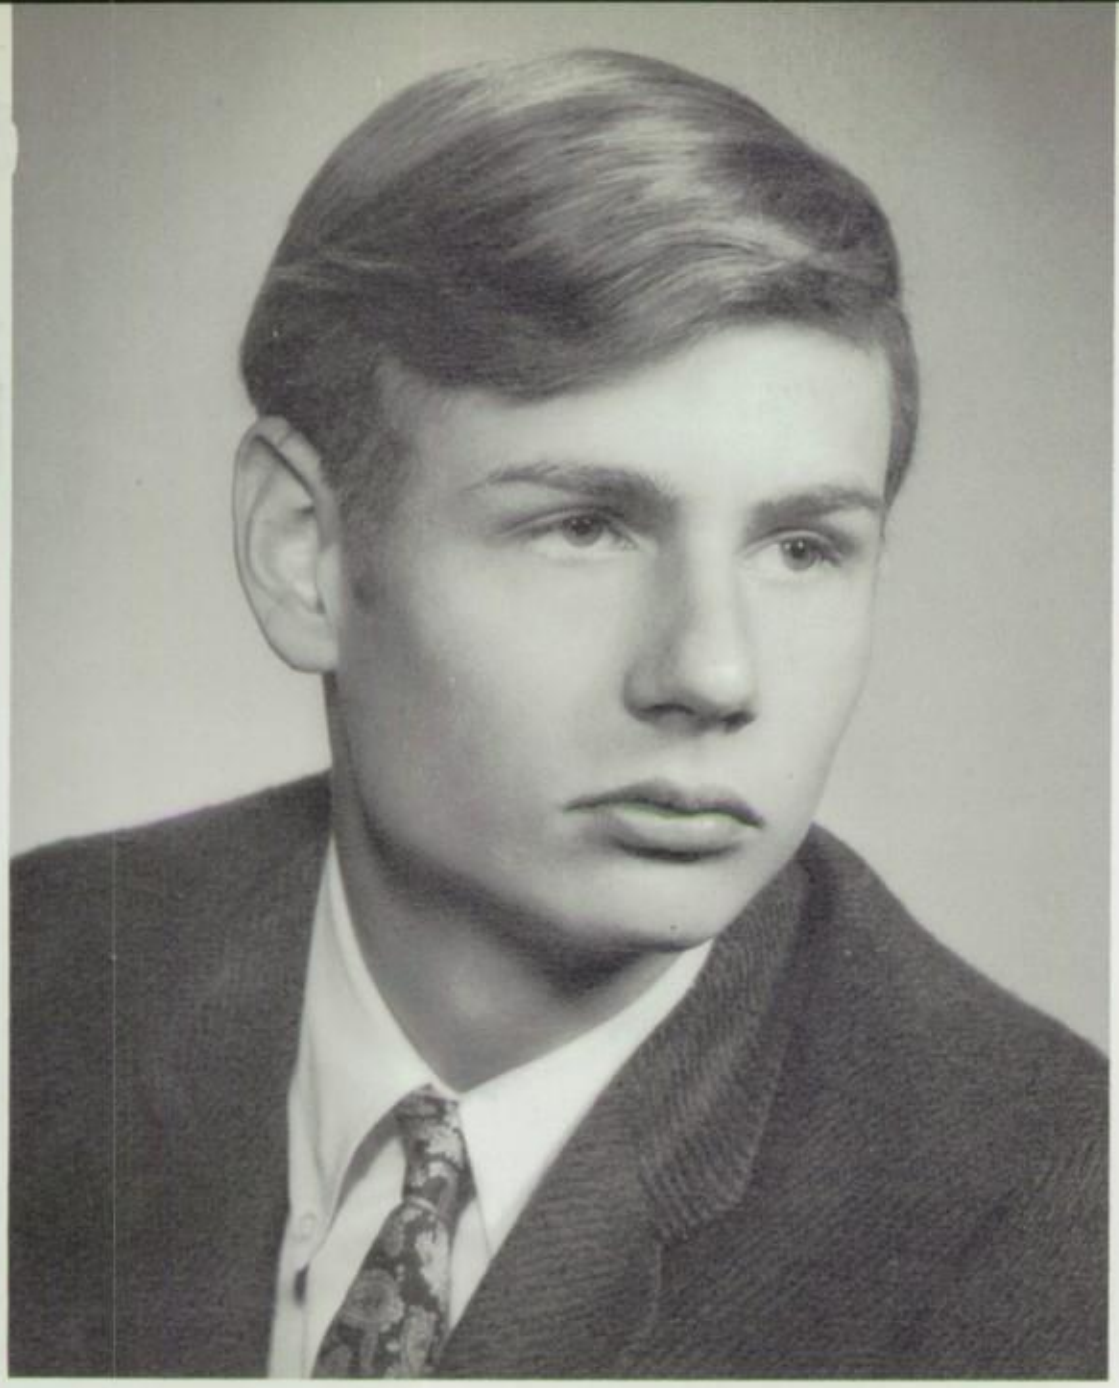


THOMAS MICHAEL SULLIVAN

Courage isn't lack of fear; it's standing your ground in spite of it. --Times of Brazil

Tom is a great idealist, and a dreamer of dreams that often times he will make material. His manner is quiet and reserved, but his accomplishments do not go unnoticed.





EDWARD HARRY VOGEL III

When your work speaks
for itself, don't interrupt.
--Henry J. Kaiser

Ed's outgoing and winning personality is well known. He gives generously of his time and energy, and can always be counted on to produce when the chips are down.
